Innovative and dynamic duo play scintillating short tour

Two of the most innovative, and in demand folk musicians are uniting for a series of concerts that will leave you marvelling at their mesmerising music.

Internationally respected musicians Accordionist Karen Tweed, and Guitarist, Fiddler, and Songwriter Roger Wilson are combining their unique musical talents for a short tour that will leave you captivated by their stage presence, and entranced by their diverse range of material.

Karen's deft, and hauntingly beautiful playing saw her voted All Ireland Accordion champion on 5 occasions, and she has become one of the most sought after musicians in her field.

Having spent much of last year travelling from Continent to Continent to grace artists albums, and delight audiences worldwide, it is good to have her back on these shores, and in top form. The warmth of her playing is echoed in her personality, and she delights in regaling audiences with her many tales of her musical travels. A key member of Swåp, and long standing founding member of The Poozies, her diverse range of influences, and creative approach has left many an audience spellbound by her playing.

Roger's robust vocals, and Guitar playing are further enhanced by his fluent Fiddle playing, and intelligent, and varied original compositions. From heartbreaking ballads, to amusing, and entertaining stories of Boat builders, and commuters locked into the 9-5 they sit neatly alongside his intoxicating interpretations of traditional songs.

A stalwart of the House Band, and one third of Wood Wilson Carthy, Roger's relaxed stage manner, and dry sense of humour certainly puts the audience at ease.

Separately sensational musicians, together a dynamic force, this duo will lift your spirits, and have you energised by their evocative playing.

Stylish, creative, inspiring, and above all human, and unique in a world wrapped up in similarity. Why not take a break from the standard guitar, bass, and drums line ups and experience something new, for believe me it will be an experience that you will never forget.
